DUTY OF CARE

Applecross Parish has a duty of care to children attending rehearsals and parent/child workshops. Your child/ren are in the care of responsible adults who have a 'Working with Children Card'.

Your child/ren's safety and wellbeing are most important and we seek your support and co-operation.

- All children must be dropped off and picked up at rehearsals and parent/child workshops. Should your child arrive early and there is no adult to supervise, it is your responsibility to supervise your child until such time as a teacher/catechist arrives. The child must stay with you during this time.
- It is the parent's responsibility to drop off and pick up their child/children; if you are delayed in picking up your child, then you should make alternative arrangements.
- In cases of emergency contact Parish Office on 08 9364 1120.
- Your child/ren's photo may be taken at special events or in the classroom and this could be used on the Parish website, displayed on Parish notice boards or newsletter. Please indicate if you do not wish for this to happen. Yes / No

Parents please sign this form. I/we have read and understood the above.
