15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YR C

GOSPEL REFLECTION BY Fr Michael Tate

The Neighbourliness of Global Citizens

The lawyer asked a self-serving question: 'Who is my neighbour?' He could then set the limits, the boundaries of those close enough to merit his concern. Jesus replies with a story to show that the better question is: 'To whom should I be neighbourly?'

The answer is: To any person who is wounded in any way – physically, psychologically, socially, economically. And we have to do so overcoming the labelling, even bigotry, which can conveniently put a person outside the range of our concern. When we act like the Samaritan, we deserve the title 'Catholic' which means universal.

Pope Francis says that Christ is constantly inviting us, as he invited Thomas, to touch His wounds which are to be found in the wounded of our own time.

We could pause for a moment to thank God that we live in an age of technology which can enable us to be truly Catholic global citizens practising Mercy Without Borders. 'Do this and you will live.'

CLOTHING DONATION

Lately we have received lots of clothing donations left in front of our office boardroom door. We are not collecting any clothing donations, therefore, could you please put them in the St Vinnies Clothing Bin, located at the corner near St Benedict's Kindy gate and the church parking or at St Vinnies' shops. Thank you.

Being an Inclusive Community - How can we make a difference?

Following on from previous article:

1. Place yourself in a chair at eye level for easy conversation with a person using a wheelchair or walker.
2. Offer assistance and wait until the offer is accepted. Wait for instructions, but don't insist.
3. Give your unhurried attention to a person who has difficulty speaking rather than speak for the person. You can help by asking short questions that require short answers, a nod or a shake of the head, or a written answer.

Together we can make a difference.

PRAY FOR THE SICK

Please keep the following people in your prayers:

Myrtle Nimmo, Sr Carla, Beryl Kerman, Truus Botman, Patrick Thomas, Ng Chai Hong, Beatrice Leong, Helen Overman, Shalini Saldanha, Ng Choon Bee, Jake Heron, Nick Odorisio, Michelle O'Brien, Gerald Logan, and all others who are not included in this list. Thank you.

PLEASE PRAY FOR RECENTLY DECEASED:

Ruth Monkhouse & Gianna Stocco

ANNIVERSARIES:

June Hackett, Clementina Even, Leo Johnson, Philip George, Marzia Cinanni, and all deceased benefactors of the parish and all departed family and friends. Thank You.

PARISH ANNIVERSARY PRAYER

Loving God, as we celebrate our past and rejoice in our present, we also look forward with eager eyes to the future.

We thank You for every memory that our celebrations revive, and for the great number of witnesses who have made the 70th anniversary of our parish an occasion for celebration. We give thanks to You for Your goodness through all the years of worship in this parish of St Benedict's. We give You thanks for Your grace in calling us to be Your people, for Your love revealed to us in Christ Your Son.

We pray that you would continue to make your love known among us. Give us a zeal for mission. Deepen within each of us a sense of gratitude for the many sacrifices made for us by those who have gone before us, and thereby find this parish a place of refreshment and strength. Help us to look beyond our walls to those who do not know you. Help us to show to them in word and deed the riches of life in Christ.

In Jesus name, we pray. Amen.

PRAYER FOR THE DAY

Presence

God is with me, but more, God is within me, giving me existence. Let me dwell for a moment on God's life-giving presence in my body, my mind, my heart and in the whole of my life.

Freedom

Thank you God for my freedom. May I use this gift to do what I can for those who are oppressed or burdened.

Consciousness

Where do I sense hope, encouragement, and growth areas in my life? By looking back over the last few months, I may be able to see which activities and occasions have produced rich fruit. If I do notice such areas, I will determine to give those areas both time and space in the future.

Conversation

Jesus, you always welcomed little children when you walked on this earth. Teach me to have a childlike trust in you. To live in the knowledge that you will never abandon me.

Conclusion

I thank God for these few moments we have spent alone together and for any insights I may have been given concerning the text.

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS: 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year C

- 1st: Gen 18:1-10; Ps: 14: 2-5;
2nd: Col 1:24-28; Gospel: Lk 10:38-42.

READINGS FOR THE DAY

Entrance Antiphon Cf. Ps 16:15

As for me, in justice I shall behold your face;
I shall be filled with the vision of your glory.

First Reading Dt 30:10-14

A reading from the book of Deuteronomy

Let the instruction of the Lord God be near you.

Moses said to the people: 'Obey the voice of the Lord your God, keeping those commandments and laws of his that are written in the Book of this Law, and you shall return to the Lord your God with all your heart and soul.'

'For this Law that I enjoin on you today is not beyond your strength or beyond your reach. It is not in heaven, so that you need to wonder, "Who will go up to heaven for us and bring it down to us, so that we may hear it and keep it?" Nor is it beyond the seas, so that you need to wonder, "Who will cross the seas for us and bring it back to us, so that we may hear it and keep it?" No, the Word is very near to you, it is in your mouth and in your heart for your observance.'

Responsorial Psalm Ps 68:14. 17. 30-31. 33-34. 36-37.

R. see v.33

(R.) Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live.

1. This is my prayer to you,
my prayer for your favour.
In your great love, answer me, O God,
with your help that never fails:
Lord, answer, for your love is kind;
in your compassion, turn towards me. (R.)
2. As for me in my poverty and pain
let your help, O God, lift me up.
I will praise God's name with a song;
I will glorify him with thanksgiving. (R.)
3. The poor when they see it will be glad and God-seeking hearts will revive;
for the Lord listens to the needy
and does not spurn his servants in their chains. (R.)
4. For God will bring help to Zion and rebuild the cities of Judah.
The sons of his servants shall inherit it;
those who love his name shall dwell there. (R.)

Second Reading Col 1:15-20

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Colossians

All things were created through him and for him.

Christ Jesus is the image of the unseen God and the first born of all creation, for in him were created all things in heaven and on earth:
everything visible and everything invisible,

Thrones, Dominations, Sovereignties, Powers –
all things were created through him and for him.
Before anything was created, he existed, and he holds all things in unity. Now the Church is his body, he is its head.
As he is the Beginning, he was first to be born from the dead, so that he should be first in every way; because God wanted all perfection to be found in him and all things to be reconciled through him and for him, everything in heaven and everything on earth, when he made peace by his death on the cross.

Gospel Acclamation Jn 6:63. 68

Alleluia, alleluia!

Your words, Lord, are spirit and life;
you have the words of everlasting life.

Gospel Lk 10:25-37

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Who is my neighbour?

There was a lawyer who, to disconcert Jesus, stood up and said to him, 'Master, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' He said to him, 'What is written in the Law? What do you read there?' He replied, 'You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbour as yourself.' 'You have answered right,' said Jesus, 'do this and life is yours.'

But the man was anxious to justify himself and said to Jesus, 'And who is my neighbour?' Jesus replied, 'A man was once on his way down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell into the hands of brigands; they took all he had, beat him and then made off, leaving him half dead. Now a priest happened to be travelling down the same road, but when he saw the man, he passed by on the other side. In the same way a Levite who came to the place saw him, and passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan traveller who came upon him was moved with compassion when he saw him. He went up and bandaged his wounds, pouring oil and wine on them. He then lifted him on to his own mount, carried him to the inn and looked after him. Next day, he took out two denarii and handed them to the innkeeper. "Look after him," he said, "and on my way back I will make good any extra expense you have." Which of these three, do you think, proved himself a neighbour to the man who fell into the brigands' hands?' 'The one who took pity on him,' he replied. Jesus said to him, 'Go and do the same yourself.'

Communion Antiphon Cf. Ps 83:4-5

The sparrow finds a home,
and the swallow a nest for her young:
by your altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God.
Blessed are they who dwell in your house,
for ever singing your praise.
